A global pandemic and a historic devastating flood have impacted thousands in Midland County.

Relief efforts are dynamic, evolving and will require a phased and collaborative approach. Individual needs will be diverse and multi-faceted. There are numerous sources of financial relief that may be available, including FEMA, SBA, State and local. There are also considerations at the local level about building in a flood plain, insurability and proper permitting.

RECOVERY PROCESS & FINANCIAL AID OVERVIEW

PHASE ONE | EMERGENCY

Local government and voluntary agencies provide for medical needs and basics like food, shelter, personal care items and cleaning kits.

PHASE TWO | RELIEF

The initial data collected through self-assessments and actual assessments were instrumental in applying for a Federal Disaster Declaration from the Federal Government. The Declaration was signed on July 9, 2020, releasing federal funds to help people and communities recovery from the flood.

ACTIONS FOR HOMEOWNERS

1. Document damages (home, vehicles, medical, other structures).
2. Work with your insurance company and utilize personal insurance dollars. Most require that you submit a claim within 60 days.
3. If your insurance claim is denied, be sure to get a written denial.
4. Work with volunteers and National Volunteer Organizations Active in Disaster (VOAD) groups for initial mucking-out and drying. If volunteers or VOADs have not been to your home for initial clean-up or mucking out, call (989) 374-8000.
5. Utilize personal savings and interest-free loans available to repair the damage.
6. Apply for FEMA financial assistance
7. Apply for a low-interest SBA loan
8. Work with a Long Term Disaster Recovery Case Manager to explore local financial support which could include financial assistance, in-kind materials and volunteer support.

INSURANCE

Property owners with flood damage should contact their insurance agents to assess coverage and amounts. If insurance will not cover damages, be sure to get a Statement of Denial from the insurance company. Property owners are advised to save all receipts and take photo and video documentation of damages and any work done.

The Michigan Department of Insurance and Financial Services, Michigan's insurance regulatory agency, provides helpful information and possible remedies related to flooding and insurance. Visit www.michigan.gov/difs/0,5269,7-303-12902_71489_71517-350344--,00.html to learn more.

When an applicant registers, you are given a unique registration number. The registration number is important and should be written down and kept handy.

Disaster survivors who called FEMA but did not finalize their registration and those who reported damage only to local authorities still need to contact FEMA to receive FEMA assistance. Anyone who does not have a registration number is not yet registered.

FEMA DOCUMENTATION DROP-OFF SITES

FEMA has set up a Documentation Drop-off Center in Midland for survivors of the flooding to submit any required supporting documents for their disaster assistance application. The drop-off center, located at the Dow Diamond Outfield Ticket Office (back parking lot), 825 E. Main St. in Midland, will be open for a limited time and is staffed by FEMA personnel who can scan documents and quickly answer questions about disaster assistance programs.

The center is open from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. Sunday, Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, and from 2 p.m. to 6 p.m. on Wednesday. The center is closed on Saturday.

Another Documentation Drop-off Center opened in Gladwin County on Thursday, Aug. 13. That center is located at 401 State St. and will be open from 8 a.m. to 7 p.m. Monday through Sunday.

SBA DISASTER ASSISTANCE LOANS

Disaster loans up to $200,000 are available to homeowners to repair or replace damaged or destroyed real estate. Homeowners and renters are eligible up to $40,000 to repair or replace either damaged or destroyed personal property.

Interest rates are as low as 1.25% for homeowners and renters with terms up to 30 years. Loan amounts and terms are set by the SBA and are based on each applicant's financial condition.

In accordance with health precautions for the Coronavirus (COVID-19), the SBA will not establish a field presence to assist survivors. However, SBA will continue to provide first class customer service and conduct outreach virtually with webinars, skype calls, phone assistance and step-by-step application assistance. As a result, SBA has opened a Virtual Disaster Loan Outreach Center/Business Recovery Center (VDLOC/VBRC) to help survivors apply online using the Electronic Loan Application (ELA) via the SBA's secure website at <https://disasterloanassistance.sba.gov/> and

TOP TEN FACTS TO KNOW ABOUT REGISTERING FOR FEMA DISASTER ASSISTANCE

It's important to know the facts about the help that may be available to you:

1. You won't be taking grant money away from someone else by applying. There are enough disaster funds to assist every eligible applicant.
2. FEMA assistance is provided to eligible homeowners and renters as grant funding that does not have to be repaid. Remember: federal assistance cannot duplicate insurance or payments from other sources.
3. FEMA assistance is nontaxable and will not affect eligibility for Social Security, Medicaid or other federal or state benefits.
4. While it's a smart practice to get multiple cost estimates before hiring a contractor to do work on your home, you only need to submit one contractor quote or estimate when appealing a FEMA decision.
5. The Documentation Drop-off Centers are sites where survivors can submit documents to support their FEMA registration and get information about FEMA assistance. There are two centers currently open in Midland and Gladwin, with other centers due to open soon. The centers do not offer COVID-19 testing.
6. If your insurance is delayed by 30 days or more, and you need immediate money to relocate, FEMA may be able to help. Contact the FEMA Helpline at 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585) to find out what you need to do to get this assistance. NOTE: any money you may get from FEMA will be an advance and must be repaid when you get your insurance.
7. If your car had uninsured damage caused by the disaster, you may be eligible for money to help repair or replace it. Certain requirements apply, but you must register with FEMA first to determine eligibility.

8. If you applied for a U.S. Small Business Administration (SBA) loan for the COVID-19 disaster, be aware those loans are separate from loans for the May flooding disaster. You should apply if you are referred to SBA for the May floods. You may be eligible for loans for both disasters.
9. Applicants may be eligible for an SBA loan amount increase up to 20 percent of their property's physical damage to make their home safer. To learn more, visit SBA.gov/disaster or call 571-422-8013, 571-422-6016 or 571-422-0331.
10. If you applied for assistance through a voluntary organization or other federal or state agency, you are not registered with FEMA. If you aren't sure, or to apply with FEMA, go online to DisasterAssistance.gov, call 800-621-3362 (TTY 800-462-7585), or download the FEMA App.

What is 211 and how can they help?

2-1-1 is a free, easy-to-remember telephone number that connects people in need with people who can help—24 hours a day, 7 days a week. They are an information and referral service. Their database is continually updated to reflect the most up-to-date resources available. They will not meet your individual needs directly, but can connect you to organizations and services that can help.

There are multiple ways to connect with 211:

- Dial 211 from your phone
- Visit 211nemichigan.org for access to a live chat or search their resource directory.
- Text your zip code to TXT211

I have not been able to connect to 211 or calls have dropped. What can I do?

For many people in the Sanford and Edenville area, internet and cell service has been challenging as crews work hard to restore service to this area. It is not uncommon for cell phones to drop calls. This can be very frustrating. If you are getting disconnected when trying to call 211, remember it is most likely a reception issue. Try using the text option, consider changing locations or going online at 211nemichigan.org.

My house was impacted by the flood. What is my first step? Call the Long-term Disaster Recovery Hotline at (989) 374-8000 to ensure your information is in the database. This data has been used to deploy teams trained in disaster relief to help assist with clean-up. It will also serve as our database for long-term recovery, case management and assessing overall community needs. Make sure you document the damage to your home through pictures and tracking all expenses and work performed.

What happens after I complete the form? A case manager will be calling you to discuss your current status and capture your immediate and long-term needs. When complete, this information will be utilized to help guide you through the recovery process.

But what if I've already began the clean-up of my home? If you or other friends, family or groups have helped you with initial cleanup efforts, it's important that we know the status of your home. If you have not yet completed the damage self-assessment survey, call (989) 374-8000. Make sure you document the damage to your home through pictures and tracking all expenses and work performed.

I have been displaced from my residence due to the flood. What do I do?

Many residents displaced after the flood were provided with non-congregate shelter through the American Red Cross and are now transitioning to more sustainable housing solutions.

United Way is providing financial assistance to support short-term housing for individuals and families displaced from the flood. This includes help with security deposits, first month's rent along with rent assistance for up to six months, based on financial need. Call Home To Stay Housing Assistance center for intake, coordination and case management at (989) 496-9550.

Do you have any tips for how to receive assistance? Document your claim. Document damages with photos. Save copies of filings, mail and emails related to your claim. Save copies of your receipts. The more documentation you have, the better.

I received a letter from FEMA saying I am ineligible for housing assistance. Why am I ineligible? Here are some of the more common reasons for potential ineligibility:

No inspection. When you registered, you reported the disaster has not made your home unsafe to live in. FEMA will send you a No Inspection letter advising you are not eligible for assistance because the damage was minor, and you were able to live in the home. If your situation changes and the damage is worse than originally reported—or you discover your private well is unusable due to the disaster—you may call the FEMA helpline and an inspection may be issued.

Insured. FEMA determined insurance covered your essential needs. Federal assistance cannot duplicate insurance payments, but FEMA may be able to help when homeowners or flood insurance did not. You may submit your insurance settlement records to FEMA for review.

How can I be reconsidered for federal assistance? The following reasons for ineligibility require an applicant to submit an appeal in writing to be reconsidered for federal assistance. The appeal must include a letter along with additional information or documentation.

No proof of occupancy. You were unable to demonstrate you occupied the home at the time of the disaster. When FEMA is unable to verify this information, you may provide FEMA with documents such as utility bills, a bank or credit card statement, phone bill, pay stubs, a driver's license, state-issued ID card, or voter registration card.

Insufficient damage. An inspector determined the damage caused by the current disaster has not made your home unsafe to live in. Your home is still safe, sanitary and functional. If you disagree with the home inspector's decision, you can appeal. Get third-party documentation in writing (bid for repairs, condemnation notice, etc.) that states your home is uninhabitable.

No initial relocation. You indicated on your application that you did not want to move while your damaged home was being repaired. This made you ineligible for FEMA temporary rental assistance. However, you have since found further damage to your home and must move. Since your housing needs have since changed, contact FEMA to update your housing status and explain why you had (or will have) to relocate. If it's within 30 days from the date of the decision letter, you can call the FEMA helpline and update your status. Any request made more than 30 days after the date of the decision letter must be made in writing.

How do I appeal a FEMA decision? Send a letter with any additional documentation to FEMA asking for reconsideration. This must be done within 60 days of the date of your ineligibility letter.

What about heating systems and water heaters? If the floodwaters reached your home heating systems, you should have them checked for operating safety by experienced repair personnel. FEMA suggests turn on your heat prior to fall to check that there isn't a leak, or the blower isn't working. If there is a problem, call a licensed professional to have it inspected. If you need to repair or replace the appliance, FEMA may be able to help. Homeowners who receive a FEMA grant for repairs and later discover their furnace or water heater needs replacing must use the FEMA appeal process for additional grant funds. The homeowner has 60 days to appeal and must submit a letter with a verified contractor's estimate for replacement of the furnace or water heater.

How do I know if I need to secure a permit from the Department of Environment Great Lakes and Energy (EGLE)? EGLE permits may be required when working within regulated areas such as the 100-year floodplain, wetlands, lakes and streams. EGLE permits are NOT required for construction outside of regulated areas and are not required to remove debris from the flood. For more information, visit www.michigan.gov/jointpermit or contact EGLE District Engineer Joy Brooks at (989) 280-1632.

How can I protect myself from fraud or scams? A few tips to remember:

- 1. Utilize common sense. Never pay more than one-third of the cost to the contractor prior to the work being complete.
- 2. Do research. Get two quotes to ensure you are paying fair market value.
- 3. Check references. Ask for proof of insurance and a copy of license to ensure you are working with licensed contractor. Check references.

FINANCIAL RESOURCES

Rough estimates of total individual homeowner damage is $100M. This does not include infrastructure needs or damage to businesses. The generosity across our community and state has been humbling, both in donations to specific flood funds and individual donations. Here are some of the organizations raising and allocating dollars:

- Midland Area Community Foundation Flood Relief Fund
- United Way Rise Together Fund
- MidMichigan Community Action
- Numerous civic, faith-based and community organizations
- In kind donations from across the country

There are nearly 2,500 households reporting some level of damage to their homes and local resources will not be able to make people whole again. To stretch dollars as far as possible, state, federal and in-kind resources will be leveraged before local dollars.

This requires a strategic and collective response to ensure donations have the greatest impact.

- Leverage FEMA, state, federal and other available financial resources.
- Leverage a construction manager to navigate laws, permitting, insurance and rebuilding plans.
- Communicate a realistic timeline and expectations to ease frustrations and impatience.
- Maximize in-kind material, equipment and appliance donations.
- Leverage and coordinate volunteer construction expertise and talent.
- Long-term case management to guide recovery efforts.

Granting of resources from local organizations will be coordinated through the Long-term Disaster Recovery Group and key organizations. Applications, information and qualifications will be made public on reliefmidland.org in the coming weeks.

I am having trouble making my rent or mortgage payment due to effects of the flood. Are there any programs to help me? Many local banks and credit unions have zero- or low-interest loans available along with mortgage and damage repair assistance options. We encourage you to work with your local lender. During the Covid-19 pandemic there has also been a moratorium of evictions, but you need to work closely with your landlord.

To be connected with rent or mortgage assistance, we encourage you to call 211.
