HAVE YOU EVER...
FELT ANXIETY TAKE CONTROL?
HAVE YOU EVER...
Felt anxiety take control?

We hope your answer is “no.” But for some, being overwhelmed by basic tasks, canceling social events last minute or missing days at school are everyday realities. We believe that no one should struggle alone and that by rallying together we can provide hope.

Ethan is just one of over 1,500 people that received vital mental health support last year. United Way partners with 27 nonprofits and invests in 57 programs in the areas of Youth Success, Health and Household Stability. Our approach to impact is intentional: we listen, ask questions, analyze data and measure outcomes. We leverage that knowledge and the resources entrusted to us, to invest in our community’s most pressing needs.

Your commitment to investing in United Way ensures there are programs available for individuals struggling with their mental health.

Although we may never meet all the people whose lives have been changed, they will forever be grateful that help was available when they needed it most. Whose life will you change?
